

Santa Fe Avenue Santa Fe Avenue is primarily residential character except for the commercial uses located directly east of the proposed project. South of Firestone Boulevard, Santa Fe Avenue includes multi- and single-family residences. On the northeast corner of the Santa Fe Avenue/Firestone Boulevard intersection is a typical commercial strip mall that includes: a discount store, restaurant, beauty salon, coin laundry, dentist's office, and surface parking lot. Directly east and across the street from the project site are commercial businesses including a discount store, restaurant, and other similar commercial uses. One of the most noticeable visual features in the project area is an approximately 130-foot tall water tower located at the southeast corner
